

Expected learning outcomes of the module 1

Interprofessional working in early detection of breast cancer

The learner should be able to demonstrate advanced knowledge involving critical understanding of theory and principles of	Skills	Competences
Her/his own professional role and patient monitoring in the breast cancer detection chain The other professionals' roles in the breast cancer detection service chain The breast cancer process, differentiating the meaning of global, national and local viewpoints	Co-operation with other health care staff working in the breast cancer detection service chain Working with the breast cancer detection team by using national/local viewpoints of the breast cancer process	Knowledge of and respect for overlapping roles and distinct competences of different health professionals Using national/local viewpoints of the breast cancer process in her/his work
Verbal and non-verbal communication and problem solving in interprofessional work Client counselling to promote breast cancer awareness, informed choice, positive breast imaging attitude/experience and to promote attendance to breast examinations The physical, social and psychological needs of patients and having confidence to respond to signs of emotional distress	Teaching and counselling peer workers and health care students Explaining the client the flow of the interprofessional service chain of breast cancer Leading and training other health care staff working in the breast cancer detection service chain	Using effective listening and conflict management skills and eliciting and providing information using effective non-verbal, explanatory, questioning, and writing skills in the interprofessional service chain of breast cancer Managing workflows of her/his unit taking into account the patient centred viewpoint and the demands of interprofessional working in the breast cancer detection service chain
Knowledge about the diagnostic value of complementary examinations	Developing the ways of interprofessional collaboration in complementary diagnostic examinations	Developing and implementing interprofessional working in complementary diagnostic examinations in the breast cancer detection service chain